Times Picking Up on the Comstock—Editors in Alliance.

Christmas day was the occasion of many presents. We received a nicely done-up package from the editorial staff of the Virginia Chronicle. We would not mention the circumstance, but for the fact that such gifts are rare, and we have no desire to "munch" matters. A note full of sentiment accompanied the gift, which we forego to publish, to save tears. We carefully opened the package, lest it might contain something of a delicate character, when lo! out rolled a loaf of bread and a Bologna sausage. The editors of the Comstock are evidently Christian gentlemen, and read their bible, for they believe in casting bread upon the waters. But we will put our shape against that of the donors and submit the question whether we need such presents, and we don't consume dried apples and warm water, either.

N. B.—Since the above was written we have received a note of apology, stating that the package was intended for a Reno journalist.

Serious Illness.

Late on Saturday night Hon. Israel Crawford, who has been ailing for some time, was stricken with paralysis. On Saturday night he retired feeling unusually well, and on Sunday morning upon being aroused, his features were found to be drawn to one side and his power of speech nearly gone. Mr. Crawford has been treated for softening of the brain during the past three months. Yesterday his condition was very precarious.

Xmas Day.

Christmas day in this city passed off unusually quiet; there were no demonstrations or festivities to distinguish the day from any other very dull Sunday. The usual quantity of drinking which generally marks a holiday, was abstained from on this occasion, which speaks well for the improved morality of the town. At the churches Xmas sermons were preached, but for that one would scarcely have known that it was Christmas.

Board of Examiners.

The State Board of Examiners met yesterday, in accordance with law, and made an official examination and count of the money in the State Treasury, with the following result: Coin, $314,042 90; paid coin vouchers not returned to Controller, $39,079 70. State Securities—Irredeemable Nevada State School bond, $380,000; Nevada State bonds, $152,000; United States bonds, $50,000.

Wood for Sale.

I will sell wood, as good, and even better, than any in Carson, two-thirds red fir limbs, and one-third split yellow-pine (mixed) at $7 per cord. A reduction of fifty cents will be allowed to parties taking five cords or more at one time. I have also a quantity of nut-pine and cedar, which I will sell at proportionately low figures. Terms strictly cash on delivery. D. CIRCE.

M. W. Hodkins, the live Glove Man, has received all the latest novelties in ladies', gent's and children's gloves and mitts, suitable for the holidays. Also a full line of winter goods, all at the lowest possible price for cash. The attention of the trade respectfully solicited. d4

Disturbing the Church.

For a long time past the Sunday evening services at the Methodist Church have from time to time been interrupted and seriously disturbed by the rude conduct of a number of ill behaved lads. These boys are nearly grown—are from 14 to 18 years of age—and old enough to behave. Last Sunday evening their annoyance culminated in a serious outbreak of talk and laughter inside the church and a serious disturbance just outside the door, and when the youngsters on the outside were reproved, they replied with a challenge to the usher to come out and fight. The parents of these boys ought to look after them and take measures to restrain them, and it is hoped that they will do so. The church authorities are determined to have these proceedings stopped, and if it is necessary, recourse will be had to the law of the land. There is a strong law on our statute books in regard to disturbing religious meetings, which reads as follows:

"Every person who shall wilfully disquiet or disturb any congregation or assembly of people met for religious worship by making a noise, or by rude or indecent behavior, or profane discourse within their place of worship, or so near the same as to disturb the order or solemnity of the meeting, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment in the County Jail not to exceed three months."

It is hoped that it will not be necessary to arrest any of these disturbers of church services, but the attention of the proper authorities has been called to the matter, and if the annoyance does not cease it will be done.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desire thus publicly to return sincere and hearty thanks to their friends and parishioners, for the many evidences of their love and friendship in the form of Christmas gifts. That the blessing of the Good Master may rest upon you all during life's passage, and the record for kind deeds given in the life to come, is the earnest prayer of your obedient servants, in Christ and the Church,

MR. AND MRS. GEO. R. DAVIS.
St. Peter's Episcopal Parish, Carson,
December 27, 1881.

Closed at Last.

The case of J. C. McTarnahan vs. the Carson City Savings bank, which has occupied the attention of the District Court for the past week, drew to a close on Monday evening, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,950.20. It was a hardly contested case, and one that is most likely to be appealed by the losing side.

Police Court.

Judge Cary yesterday disposed of the following cases: "Buck" Murphy, opium smoker, guilty; will be sentenced this morning; John Chinaman, opium seller, guilty; will be sentenced this morning; two Indians, drunk, guilty; each sentenced to ten days work on the street; Ah Lung, selling whisky to Indians, guilty; sentenced to fifteen days imprisonment.

IN BRIEF.

M. J. Purcell is in from Hawthorne. Hon. Jasper Babcock returned from California yesterday morning.

One of Carson's handsomest daughters will be led to the hymeneal altar this evening.

The N. & O. R. R. has again been attached by a Reno firm for $17,000, supplies furnished.

Sealskin saccos and diamonds were quite numerous among this year's Christmas gifts here.

Charles Harris, of Harris Brothers, leaves here on the last of the week to settle at San Francisco.

George H. Davis and R. H. Wright, while out hunting Sunday and Monday, killed forty-six ducks and geese.

The Ivy Social Club's party at the Opera House next Friday will be one of the most pleasant dances of the season.

We return thanks for a complimentary ticket to attend the next party of the Ivy Social Club, on the evening of the 30th.

Miss Eva Slingerland, now a teacher in the Virginia City public schools, is passing holiday week with her parents in this city.

P. G. M., Captain R. W. Bollen went to Genoa yesterday to install the newly elected officers of the Masonic Lodge in that village.

On Monday four arrests were made: "Buck" Murphy, for smoking opium; John Chinaman, for keeping an opium den, and two Indians for drunkenness.

Oliver Roberts talks of closing out the Magnolia saloon and engaging in some other business. What will the County Commissioners do with that portion of the building occupied by Mr. Roberts?

A gentleman in this city, who received a letter from Paris yesterday, states that he has it from the most reliable source, that Mrs. John W. Mackay devotes the sum of 250,000 francs per annum to relieve distressed Americans.

A local scientist informs the APPEAL that the Steamboat springs are gradually and perceptibly moving toward Reno. Now the question suggests itself whether the present proprietor cannot follow them up and claim them as runaway property wherever he may find them.

Manager Preddey is negotiating with a good Eastern company for an early appearance at the Opera House. Several Eastern companies are en route for this coast now, but Carson does not bear a good name for treating snide troupes with much consideration, so they will give us the pass-by.

A Chinese merchant said to an APPEAL reporter that the Celestial dramatic (?) who were playing here a short time since, and who demanded $200 per night to exhibit what they didn't know before a white audience, received at the rate of $50 a week and grub, consisting of rice, while in San Francisco; besides while in the city the company was twice as numerous.

Shot by a Chinaman.

LITTLE ROCK, Dec. 26.—Dr. C. H. Rosehauer, a prominent physician, was assassinated at his residence, nine miles from Pine Bluff, on Saturday evening. The assassin fired through a window with a double-barreled shotgun and lodged fifteen buckshot in his victim's body. Suspicion points to Lee Chow, a Chinese laundryman, as the guilty party. A few months ago Lee Chow was married in this city to a beautiful but ignorant girl named Estella Smith. Shortly after his marriage he and his wife left her and settled in Dr. Rosehauer's neighborhood. An intimacy sprung up between the doctor and the Chinaman's wife, and she forsook her husband and took up her residence at the doctor's house. Subsequently Lee Chow persuaded her to leave the doctor and return to him. Together they came to this city and were followed by the doctor. He accused the woman of taking money and valuables from him when she left. He became very violent, and was arrested and fined in the Police Court. He immediately left the city and returned home, where he remained until he was assassinated. The doctor was a Prussian by birth. He came here from Aricola, Maryland, where he has a family living.

Fresh Goods.

After a long and vexatious delay the remaining portion of the holiday goods of John G. Fox arrived on Friday. Although he has had all along an excellent assortment from which to choose, there were certain articles which should have been here a fortnight ago, but owing to the tardiness of the shippers did not reach here until Friday. However, Mr. Fox reasons like a philosopher, and as his new goods are something extra, consoles himself with the old saying of better late than never. He now wishes the public to give him a call and examine his new stock. There is a great deal to be seen and now is the time to make the view. Of the new goods we noticed some beautiful ladies' velvet plush lined cases, picture frames, trimmed with silk velvet of different colors; music boxes, discoursing favorite airs; napkin rings special plated; some additional books, by leading authors, tree calf binding, etc.; toilet cases, card receivers, silver ware, children's books, picture easels, albums, toilet looking glasses, and a great many other things too numerous to mention. The public are assured that the above articles are of the best quality, and will be sold at reasonable rates. Remember the place, J. G. Fox.
